Summary of Public Comments:

- No public comments

Discussion:

- Removal of Isaiah was unpleasant and wanted more communication from staff and more input. This was sprung onto us when Rosie found out when Isaiah told her at the quarterly meeting.
- DCs are looking to contest the ruling of the change of COC. Kiisha and Elianne are in disagreement. Rosie is indifferent.
- Rosie gave a debrief of the quarterly meeting. And will want to include the proposals of what was discussed.
- Re-engagement means because it should not have to be where there is a major incident.
- Schedule a rotating schedule. Rosie will send flyers to stakeholders and partners. Elianne attendance not successful but engagement will be.

Community Updates:

- None

District Council Member Updates:

- UCAN having their events and so the block party did not occur. Kiisha did not have event but looking to still host.
- Elianne: all names went thru city council except the candidate Angel. The permanent selection of names are: Aaron Gottlieb, Abierre Minor Kelly Presley, and Sandra Wortham Anthony Driver, Terry Merrill. When it went to committee Angel's application was not selected, he was the 18- 24 youth candidate from the northside. The issue was he works for the an alderman who has worked in aldermanic offices and did not mention he is still active in the 48th ward. Despite, it being mentioned in his bio, and CCPSA press release and the Mayors. Everyone was aware he worked there, but the committee thought it might have been a conflict of interest. He is currently stuck in committee to be voted on. If angel is not selected the other youth works for the mayor's office. DCs are advocating for alders to approve and vote yay. Chicago Latino caucus put out the statement. No Latino representation and is DACamented. As a nominating committee, process might have to open up again. 48th ward supported Angel.
- Rosie- signed up 10th district for a co-invite with other DC colleagues for October.
