| Total In Progress/ Ongoing/ Completed | 24 |

Key Call-Outs

- | | |
|----|---|
| 1 | Host a meeting for any interested leaders of neighborhood associations and block clubs to network, collaborate, and share ideas |
| 3 | Collect and provide information on 19th District Neighborhood Associations within the District and post on 19PDC website |
| 11 | Distribute mental health palm cards to every beat officer in the district |
| 12 | Distribute 1,500 mental health palm cards to community members |

Key Call-Outs

Work with CAPS Sergeant to help dispel feelings of anxiety and fear by providing more context and explanation of incidents that occurred in the beat. For example:

- Providing explanation of CPD terminology used in CAPS packets (ie. written explanation of robbery vs burglary vs theft)

25 - Sharing number of violent crimes that have occurred to people randomly on the street

- Sharing tips on how to stay protected, all in one clear sheet

- Ensuring CAPS packet being shared with community are relevant and up-to-date

- Providing information about the next District Council meeting and how to sign up to receive our newsletters

Mental Health Mobile Crisis Response

Contact these organizations for yourself, a loved one, or a third party to connect with a team of trained mental health professionals during a mental health crisis. Depending on the situation, certain agencies may dispatch a team of professionals for in-person assistance.

If a 911 response is needed, ask for a CIT Officer. They have additional training in mental health response.

Join Us at Avondale Restorative Justice Community Court

What is the Restorative Justice Court?

- Cook County is home to three Restorative Justice Community Courts (RJCC), geared toward young adults ages 18-26 charged with non-violent felony or misdemeanor crimes.
- RJCCs aim to reduce recidivism, prevent future harm, and resolve conflict through restorative conferences and peace circles.
- The court involves participation by victims, family members, friends, others affected by the crime, and the community.

When
July 19, 2024
Court starts around 11am
3647 W. George

Introducing Romeo Jackson

19TH DISTRICT COUNCIL TWO PART MINI SERIES

- | | | | |
|----------|----------------------------|--------------------------------------|----------------|
| 1 | Weds. June 29, 2024 | Third Space 716 W. Addison | 6:30 pm |
| 2 | Weds. July 24, 2024 | Third Space 716 W. Addison | 6:30 pm |

Mini Series on Race and Policing with Romeo Jackson

In order to better understand the importance of police accountability and transparency in building strong relationships between the police and the community we must understand, acknowledge, and work to repair the harm that this system has produced in many Black and brown communities.

- Session One: An introspective and interactive reflection on our own personal interactions with race and policing with the goal of deepening our capacity to talk more honestly across lived experiences
- Session Two: Will take a historical and systematic look at the history of policing in Chicago and build new understandings that will help us create more just systems.

Open to the public with time for Public Comment RSVP Optional but Appreciated: <https://bit.ly/19thDCMeeting>
Attendance at both meetings is not required but encouraged

Purpose & Outcomes

- Purpose: To share our personal, lived experiences with race and police/policing
- Outcome: (1) To deepen our shared capacity to dialogue across different and shared experiences (2) to get clearer about the themes and needs for session 2

Share why you decided to attend this event.

Solo Reflection

Solo Reflection

- What are your earliest memories of race? What messages did you hear about your own race as you were growing up? Where did these messages come from?
- My first memory of the police is...? What messages did you hear about the police? How are police portrayed in your favorite shows?
- Given this, race has shaped my experiences and beliefs about policing by....

Small Groups

- Form groups of 4, ensuring there are at least two people of color in any mixed race group, all white and all POC groups are fine.
- Each person will have 4 mins to share any from their solo reflection. I will keep time in front of the room.
- Speaker: your time to use. Silence is okay.
- Listeners: listen deeply, you are not listening to response, critique, or question.

On post-its

What questions do you have? What would be helpful to know?
