I. Introduction

A. Background

Chicago Department of Transportation (CDOT), Division of Infrastructure Management (DIM) issues driveway permits in the city of Chicago. The following document describes the permitting process and fees. This document is issued in conjunction with Municipal Code of Chicago (MCC) § 10-20-390,¹ and defers to the Ordinance in the event of conflicting information. Please be advised that regulations and permit fees may change year-to-year. It is incumbent upon permittees to review the Driveway Rules and Regulations and Ordinance prior to applying for a permit. By applying for a permit, permittees acknowledge and accept all applicable regulations and fees. Additional laws, rules, and regulations may apply.

In October 2020, CDOT migrated driveway permits from a legacy database to the web-based system in which other CDOT permits are maintained. The new system allows permittees to manage and pay annual permit fees electronically. It also allows permittees to “claim” valid driveway permits managed in the previous database. With the migration, CDOT will no longer issue permittees hardcopy invoices; all driveway permit fees must be paid online.

Applicants should contact DOB with additional questions.⁴

⁸ “‘Intersection’ means the area embraced within the prolongation or connection of the property lines of two or more streets which join at an angle, whether or not one such street crosses the other. Where a highway includes two roadways 40 feet or more apart, every crossing of each roadway of such divided highway by an intersecting highway shall be regarded as a separate intersection.” City of Chicago, Municipal Code of Chicago, § 9-4-010, accessed December 29, 2020, https://codelibrary.amlegal.com/codes/chicago/latest/chicago_il/0-0-0-2486426.

¹⁰ For more information, see the ICC website at <https://www.icc.illinois.gov/>.

15. Alley Access¹¹ - An “alley access ordinance” is required to allow motor vehicles to use an alley to access a property. An alley access ordinance may be obtained from the alderman of the ward in which the property is located. Applicants seeking a commercial driveway permit for a property which requires an alley access ordinance must submit the alderman’s approval with their driveway permit application. Written approval from the alderman on aldermanic letterhead pending passage of the ordinance is acceptable.

- a. If the alderman objects to alley access, an entity may apply for a driveway permit on the condition that the site plans indicate a barrier, either steel guard rail or fence, will be installed to eliminate alley access within 60 days of issuance of the commercial driveway construction permit.
- b. If the permit application is approved, the driveway must be constructed a minimum of 10 feet from the edge of the alley to edge of the driveway measured along the property line.

III. Driveway Permit Requirements

A. New Driveway Permit Requirements

The information relates to the questions and requirements for driveway permits on the CDOT permit portal at <https://ipi.cityofchicago.org/Profile>. See IV for visual explanation of the permit application process. Driveway permittees are required to construct and maintain the driveway in accordance with the dimensions approved by CDOT.

Please note, if CDOT approves the driveway permit, the permittee has one calendar year to obtain a CDOT “public way opening permit” and construct the driveway.¹² Only licensed contractors can apply for opening permits.

- If an opening permit is created referencing the driveway permit application number, CDOT will assume the driveway is constructed and will automatically create a “periodic permit” (see below for details).
- If, after one calendar year, no opening permit referencing the driveway permit application number is created, CDOT will assume the driveway was not constructed. Permittees will need to reapply for a new residential driveway permit.

¹² For information on opening permits, please visit CDOT’s permitting website at https://www.chicago.gov/city/en/depts/cdot/provdrs/construction_information.html.

- If a driveway owner (commercial or residential) seeks to alter their existing driveway, they will need to apply for a new driveway permit. If approved, the permittee will need to abide by the public way opening permit requirements, including applying for a new periodic permit. The driveway owner shall notify the Driveway Office (see FAQ for contact information) of their intent to alter the driveway.

The following section describe the New Driveway Permit Requirements for residential and commercial properties as observed on the web portal.

1. Residential Driveway Requirements - Individuals or entities applying for a new residential driveway permit are required to provide the following information.

a. Required Documents

i. Plat of Survey or Site Plan¹³ – Applicants applying for a permit to construct a new driveway (both commercial and residential) must submit a plat of survey and a fully dimensioned site plan with their application.

a. A plat of survey “is [a] drawing that represents a single property that has been surveyed in the field and certified by an Illinois licensed land surveyor.”¹⁴ Entities applying for a driveway permit must submit a copy of a plat of survey showing the exact location of the driveway(s) and the entire site. If required, the plat of survey should also include any easement agreements. The plat of survey must be current and can be combined with the site plan (see below). Please note, the City of Chicago does not consider plats of survey public records, and, thus will not issue copies.

b. A site plan “is a plan of the entire property, drawn to scale, that shows the location and dimensions of all property lines, any existing and proposed structures, and any proposed exterior work.”¹⁵ Entities applying for a driveway permit must submit a copy of a current site plan showing the exact location of the driveway(s) and the entire site. The site plan can be combined with the plat of survey (see above).

ii. Photograph - At least one photograph demonstrating the location of the proposed driveway including the curb and sidewalk area.

iii. Notarized Letter from Adjacent Neighbors – If a proposed driveway encroaches upon an adjacent neighbor’s property, the driveway

¹³ If permittee seeks to remove a driveway(s), the plat of survey or site plan must show existing driveway. The Bureau of Zoning may require specific details on the plat of survey or site plan depending on the type of business the driveway serves. Applicants should contact the Bureau of Zoning with questions.

 - v. Justification for Oversized Driveway - If the proposed driveway’s width is greater than 25 feet at the property line, then the driveway is considered “oversized.” All permit applications for an oversized driveway must be accompanied by a written explanation why a driveway greater than 25 feet in width is required, and, if turning radius is the reason, include an auto-turn exhibit. The justification can be created using word processing software and converted to a PDF prior to upload.
 - vi. Certificate of Insurance – Homeowners applying for a residential driveway permit must upload a certificate of insurance or copy of their homeowner’s insurance policy (can be uploaded under “certificate of insurance”). The name on the permit application should be the same as the name on the certificate of insurance.¹⁶ The homeowner’s insurance policy must display the amount of their Dwelling Protection (property owner’s). The certificate of insurance must name the City of Chicago, its officers, employees, and agents as additional insured or additional interests. The Certificate must also include the driveway addresses or property address as the address listed on the application and the certificate holder’s address as the address shown below. If the tenant is responsible for the insurance (according to the lease agreement), or if a tenant has a long-term lease (10 years or longer), the tenant can apply for the permit. Applicants should be able to obtain a certificate of insurance from their insurance agency.¹⁷ database will automatically notify permittees when it is time to submit updated insurance information.

- f. “Non Compliant” permits – A driveway permit in a “non compliant” status means there are outstanding tasks associated with the application. Those tasks can be determined by the messages in the “Application Information” or “Reviews” windows (see VI).
 - i. “Fees” indicates that there are outstanding fees associated with the driveway permit which need to be paid.
 - ii. “Reviews” indicates that City staff are reviewing the application.
 1. In the case of a “renewal review,” driveway permittees must upload a valid certificate of insurance (COI) and endorsement every year for their active driveway permit. The permit database creates an annual notification—or “review”—to alert the Permit Office to check the validity of COI and endorsement documentation associated with the permit. If you have already uploaded a COI and endorsement, the Permit Office is in the process of checking your documentation. If your COI and endorsement are accepted, the Permit Office will complete the review and the “Reviews” message on the web portal will go away; if there are issues with your COI or endorsement, the Permit Office will contact you. If you have not uploaded a valid COI and endorsement, please do so.

4. See New Driveway Permit Requirements section A above for an explanation of additional periodic permit application requirements.
5. Once a driveway owner has secured a periodic permit, they can manage driveway details, pay driveway fees, and update insurance information electronically.

C. Claiming an Existing Driveway

1. Following the October 2020 driveway database migration, individuals or entities which possessed a driveway permit may have received a letter notifying them to visit the CDOT permitting site and “claim” their driveway.
2. Claiming the driveway notifies CDOT that the driveway is active and operated by an individual or entity.
3. Once a driveway has been claimed, the permittee can manage driveway details, pay driveway fees, and update insurance information electronically.

3. Do I need an IDOT permit? Driveways on streets under the jurisdiction of the Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) must also have IDOT driveway permits. The applicant is responsible for determining whether an IDOT permit is required.
4. Whom can I contact with questions? Contact the CDOT Driveway Office at cdotdriveways@cityofchicago.org, or (312) 744-9148. The Driveway Office location and hours are posted on the cover page of this document.
