Chief Administrator, Independent Police
Review Authority,

1 MR. CARNEY: We are calling the Police Board
2 meeting of July 16, 2015 to order. The first item
3 that we have one of our -- Bill Conlon will be 4 participating by phone conference. We dialed him 5 in. He's traveling. Is there a motion to allow 6 Bill to participate via conference call?

7 (moved by Ballate.) (Second by Foreman.) All in 8 favor say I. Motion passes.

9 The first item of business is approval of 10 the minutes for the public meeting on June 18th. Is 11 there a motion to approve? (Moved by Fry).
12 (Second by Foreman). All in favor say I. The 13 motion passes.

14 The next public meeting will be here at 15 the Office of Public Safety, 35th and Michigan on 16 August 20th at 7:30. At this time, I'll ask for a 17 motion to close the series of executive sessions for 18 purposes of considering litigation and personnel
19 matters as authorized by the Illinois Open Meetings 20 Act. Is there a motion? (Moved.) (Second.) All 21 those in favor say I. Motion passes.

22 A report of disciplinary actions taken by 23 the Board during the previous month have been made 24 available at this evening's meeting. This report

1 and the Board's written findings and decisions are 2 posted on the Board's website. There are no
3 disciplinary cases on the agenda for final action at 4 our meeting tonight.

5 Copies of orders issued by the 6 Superintendent of Police during the previous month 7 in the Blue Books on the back table are also 8 available on the Police Board's website.

9 The next item is the Superintendent's 10 report. Superintendent McCarthy.

11 SUPERINTENDENT McCARTHY: Thank you. I want 12 to talk about two things this evening. First is the 13 Fourth of July weekend and the violence that we 14 incurred here. It was a little bit troubling that 15 we were able to increase our resources on the street
16 by about a third. We made a ton of arrests as far 17 as guns are concerned, and yet there was still a 18 preeminence of violence even though it was less than 19 last year. I would in no way, shape, or form call 20 what happened a success, and you heard me speak 21 about this and talk about guns, too many guns coming 22 in, not enough punishment going out. And the fact 23 that gang bangers carry guns and they're more afraid 24 of a sanction from the gang for using a gun than

1 they are getting caught by the police and sanction
2 from the criminal justice system.

3 Until such time as that changes, we are 4 going to continue to have a lot of violence in the 5 City of Chicago. There is only so far we can go.
6 But there was a success that happened over the 7 weekend that has been acknowledged by the news 8 media, which is there were no shootings in 9 Englewood, which everybody here knows that it's one 10 of our most distressed, violence-prone neighborhoods
11 in the City of Chicago, and there were two things 12 that they pointed to.

13 There was community involvement. People
14 in Englewood came out. There was a group of moms, 15 mothers who went out on the street and were walking 16 around talking to gang bangers and the gang bangers 17 put up signs that said, "children here, no shooting.
18 No shooting zone." And when they interviewed the 19 gang bangers about that, they talked about a meeting 20 that we held in Englewood, something that's part of 21 our violence reduction strategy called VRS, where we 22 actually have meetings with gang members who are on 23 parole. As a condition of their parol we make them 24 come in, and we have a conversation where three

1 messages are delivered to the folks who were there.

2 The first one is, law enforcement 3 explains to them that if their group, somebody in 4 their gang commits the next murder, we are going to 5 use all the resources of law enforcement to come
6 down on them. They will go to the top of the pile, 7 get the most attention not just from the Chicago 8 Police Department but from our federal, state, and 9 local partners.

10 The second message is the message from 11 the community, generally, from the parent of a 12 murdered child who explains to them the pain that 13 they're suffering as a result of their loss. And 14 it's actually incredible to watch sometimes to see 15 these young men being physically affected by this, 16 sometimes breaking down in tears.

17 And then the third message is an offer of 18 social services and help to get a job, a GED, to get 19 substance abuse counseling, to get, you know, a 20 driver's license or CDL so they can go out and get a 21 job. And that was pointed to by the actual 22 individuals who are at that calling as a reason why 23 Englewood was quiet over the Fourth of July weekend.
24 I believe that we have a methodology that if we

1 continue down that path, we will find long-term
2 success. It's a different method of reducing crime.
3 It's not just about locking everybody up. It's a
4 method that we use here in Chicago.

5 And the last thing I want to do is I want
6 to acknowledge your leadership for the Police Board
7 for the last 20 years, Mr. Carney.

8 MR. CARNEY: Thank you.

9 SUPERINTENDENT McCARTHY: I met you a long 10 time ago when I didn't get this job, and quite 11 frankly, everything happens for a reason.

12 MR. CARNEY: Correct.

13 SUPERINTENDENT McCARTHY: And I'm a big 14 believer in fate, but your stewardship of this Board 15 for the last 20 years has had a significant impact 16 in a positive fashion, not only on the City of 17 Chicago but certainly on the Chicago Police 18 Department. I want to thank you for that and 19 acknowledge you publicly.

20 MR. CARNEY: Thank you. Now, what we're going 21 to do, I will now call upon those members of the 22 public who signed up in advance to speak. When your 23 name is called, please step up to the microphone.

24 We have a number of speakers so we ask that you

1 limit your time to two minutes because everyone has 2 a voice, and I think your voice is very important so
3 just keep that in mind. Robert Moore? (No answer).
4 Queen Sister? (No answer). Michelle Brown? Good 5 evening.

6 MS. BROWN: Good evening.

7 MR. CARNEY: Welcome to the Board.

8 MS. BROWN: Thank you. This is my first time
9 here so I have something prepared, and I'm here to 10 voice my concern about my safety living in Chicago
11 and the value of my life as well as my other fellow 12 black lives here. I can stand up here with you 13 today and repeat statistics, policies, laws, but I'm 14 not going do that because I hope you know those 15 already. I want to talk about the priceless life
16 and the value of a human life, and that it disgusts
17 me that Dante Servant's life is seen as more value 18 than Rekia Boyd. Because he wears a badge and is 19 exempt from the same justice that puts other 20 civilians behind bars and out of employment. That a 21 young black woman is dead, and that the killer
22 admitted intent to harm, and by intent, killed a 23 life, and we are still showing up here every single 24 month to demand respect and justice for the life of

1 Rekia Boyd. And that something as simple as firing 2 somebody for the recklessness and the disgust that 3 he has shown to this community is something that we 4 still have to come up here and fight for. It's 5 common sense.

6 I don't know who I fear most, a killer
7 out on the street or this Board that will not put a 8 killer out of employment. That's what I have to 9 say.

10 MR. CARNEY: Thank you. Tamera Robinson.

11 MS. ROBINSON: We're back. We're back.

12 MR. CARNEY: Welcome.

13 MS. ROBINSON: Remember us? I told you we 14 would be back. Just have a few notes. So first and 15 foremost, I want to wish a happy birthday to my 16 sister Assata Shakur and happy posthumous birthday
17 to Ida B. Wells. Some of you might know me as a 18 feminist activist here in the city of Chicago like 19 Ida B. Wells was. Ida B. Wells was excluded heavily 20 from the racist feminist movement, the first wave of 21 the suffragette movement. She worked tirelessly, 22 not just for the right of all women, but for the 23 rights of black people to survive to live without 24 the fear of lynching. And what is the modern

1 incarnation of lynching but police violence.

2 So I'm here, and you might remember what 3 I said last week, yeah, about the cognitive 4 dissonance. I hope you Demetrius, you Melissa, you
5 Rita, I hope you all understand what your complicity
6 and your enabling of this police violence does. It 7 enables the genocide against black women and men.

8 I just want to address Garry McCarthy for 9 a second. You were talking about how thankfully 10 there was nobody killed in the Englewood 11 neighborhood over the Fourth of July weekend. That 12 had very little to do with you. You see this is how 13 -- these communities are capable of taking care of 14 themselves, of policing themselves. "Policing," I
15 use that word very lightly. People want to be safe.
16 We don't need you guys. You're the ones with the 17 guns. You're the most heavily armed gang in the 18 City of Chicago. And let me point out that the 19 state has a complete monopoly on the use of violence 20 and force, meaning that if one of you decides to 21 push me to the ground to point a gun at my head, I 22 can't even try and get away.

23 What do I gotta do? Do I gotta let 24 myself end up like Rekia? Do I gotta let myself end

1 up like Sandra Bland who was murdered in her holding 2 cell just after she tried to post bond and they're 3 trying to say it was a suicide.

4 Excuse me, but this -- I'm not even 5 really looking at my notes. I'm really at a loss 6 right now. I'm really at a loss, and I'm looking at 7 these black women and men who are sitting here 8 enabling this violence, enabling this genocide. And 9 as I said last month, do this again. Go home and 10 look in the mirror. If this is your daughter, if 11 this is your son, if this is your child who has a 12 police officer's gun in their face, what would you 13 do?

14 Now, I'm probably going to get fired
15 soon. I called off work today. I called off work 16 to my worthless minimum wage job where they expect 17 me to exploit and rip off other black people into 18 buying these useless products over the phone. It's 19 absolutely absurd that this thing is allowed to 20 exist, but I'm probably going to get fired for 21 calling in because I came to speak to you all today.
22 But Dante Servant is not going to get fired because 23 -- after killing somebody.

24 Now let's look at this imbalance of 1 power. You all again, being the people with the 2 monopoly on violence. You can't even -- the least, 3 the least that could happen, the least bit of 4 retribution that could happen is -- again, I'm not 5 saying justice. There is no justice when an 6 innocent life is ended. But the least you could do 7 is fire this cold-blooded, racist murderer.

8 MR. CARNEY: Thank you. Our next speaker is 9 LaCreshia Birts.

10 MS. BIRTS: Chicago police encourages people 11 to hold criminals accountable for their actions and 12 to come forward with information about criminals in 13 their communities. Yet time and time again, they 14 refuse to do the same. This push for civilians to 15 stand up and do the right thing was demonstrated a 16 few weeks ago when Superintendent McCarthy expressed 17 extreme disappointment with Antonio Round for not 18 cooperating with police in providing information 19 about his son's murder. Out of frustration and 20 possibly retaliation for not helping police,
21 McCarthy also pointed to Antonio's record of 45 22 arrests and 12 convictions and suggested that if 23 Antonio was locked up, his son would still be alive.
24 But McCarthy's attitude on the subject is not new.

1 In a 2013 interview Gary McCarthy states, "criminals
2 give each other up but now we are in a position
3 where shooting victims and shooting witnesses don't 4 give up the shooters. And that strikes me -- that's 5 something that's backwards there."

6 What I find backwards is that a grieving
7 father is demonized by McCarthy and this Department
8 for not standing up for his slain son while Rekia 9 Boyd and many others were murdered on your watch by 10 men under your employment and you have done nothing.

11 What's even more backwards is that the 12 police department has a history of torturing
13 civilians, falsifying evidence, and tricking people
14 into false confessions and the folks who commit 15 these crimes are protected. This blue code of 16 silence is the honor system within the police 17 department, and it's used to aid and abet criminals
18 and racists in the police department. If the police 19 want people to stand up and do the right thing, they 20 must destroy the blue code of silence. They must 21 turn in men in uniform who commit crimes and 22 exemplify the law to the utmost extreme. Fire Dante 23 Servan without benefits, without pension.

24 MR. CARNEY: Thank you. Rachel Williams.

1 Good afternoon. Welcome back.

2 MS. WILLIAMS: You're going to see me back
3 every day, every month.

4 MR. CARNEY: You have a right to be here and 5 you have a voice and we want to hear your voice.

6 MS. WILLIAMS: You'll get used to hearing it
7 too. All right, so I love how every time you come, 8 McCarthy, you wrap it up so sweetly like it seems 9 like everything is perfectly dandy. Yeah, let's 10 cough it up for Englewood, they didn't have any 11 shootings. And you're right, they didn't. That was 12 a community effort. And when you realize the 13 community -- the community can police itself without 14 the jurisdiction with the police and without the 15 fear of having police do its police, then yeah, you 16 have that.

17 And again, consistently you want to sit 18 there and make it about breaking down that wall, and 19 breaking down the wall of silence and making the 20 community speak. But when your office is not 21 willing to speak about the fucked up officers they 22 say are along with, you're not going --

23 MR. CARNEY: Ms. Williams, there is no
24 profanity.

1 MS. WILLIAMS: Okay, if you're not willing to 2 break down the screwed up wall that your officers 3 hide behind, then you think the community will too?
4 Now, Dante Servant was all charges were dismissed, 5 and I'm pretty sure he's still sitting at home or 6 doing 311 calls, whichever one, but he's still 7 getting a paycheck. He is still getting paid. He's 8 still living and breathing while a girl's family is 9 in mourning. So when you sit up there and make a 10 statement that everything is all well and dandy 11 within the community, but you're not willing to 12 actually do a full blown listening tool within the 13 communities which despise you. And trust me, you go 14 to Roseland, you go to Cabrini, not Cabrini, what 15 would have been Cabrini Green, but if you actually 16 go to what is the areas which are most afflicted by 17 the over policing which exists within these 18 communities, you will understand that they trust the 19 gangs better than they trust you.

20 So if you look at that dynamic, you will 21 consistently have the same results in which you get 22 every time there is a shooting. So you have to look 23 within your force and address the issues within your 24 force. So as long as Dante Servant is sitting at

1 home getting a pension, and there's still shootings 2 and there is nobody saying anything, you have to 3 look at what's going on with your force. You have 4 to look at the mismanagement of why there is no 5 trust.

6 I came from a school in the middle of 7 Englewood where we also knew Chicago P.D. were also 8 selling guns out of the back of their cars. That 9 was -- I graduated in 2009, and that school was in 10 one on 55th. So if you're telling me one gang is on 11 one side of the boulevard and another gang is on 12 another side of the boulevard, and your officers are 13 also filled in to the fire of a gang war that your 14 officers partake in. Let's be honest, your officers 15 are a part of a gang. You're a part of a gang. So 16 when you saying gang bangers and gang affiliated, 17 most of your officers and most of your black, white,
18 and Latino officers have gang ties. So if you --

19 MR. CARNEY: Ms. Williams, can you start
20 winding down? We have a number of speakers.

21 MS. WILLIAMS: Oh, I'm winding down. If you
22 don't address the issues within your force. If you
23 consistently want to BS people and have us
24 consistently come up here and do this over and over

1 again, you're going to consistently have the same
2 results. You're going to consistently have a
3 community that has no trust within the Chicago P.D.

4 MR. CARNEY: Thank you.

5 MS. WILLIAMS: Thank you.

6 MR. CARNEY: I saw Robert Moore come in. We 7 called you, and you weren't here so I'll let you 8 speak right now, please.

9 MR. MOORE: It's July 16, 2015. This is the 10 City of Chicago Police Board meeting. Having some 11 technical difficulties. Robert J. Moore, Branch 4, 12 Michael the Archangel associate administrative 13 assistant. Mr. Superintendent, where were you in 14 June? Is there a reason you were not here? What 15 was it that you were doing that you couldn't make 16 the meeting?

17 MR. CARNEY: Mr. Moore.

18 MR. MOORE: Okay, that is over my objection
19 because that is a deprivation of the constitutional 20 law and the color of law which is 18-242 tortiously.
21 Mr. Carney, I have to file this with the grand jury 22 and with the citizen grand jury and Michael the 23 Archangel Tribunal. I can't let anyone run over the 24 top of me in good conscious without having to take

1 my life to do it. I have a fourth commandment 2 burden to help keep the government, activity of 3 government, all government actors from the top to 4 the bottom within acceptable limits. That's in the 5 fourth commandment. If you enter in the light keep 6 the commandments, Matthew 19:17. I can't let people
7 run over the top of these. It's the questions that 8 don't get asked and the answers that are not 9 provided, the demands that aren't made that 10 ultimately result in the enslavement of posterity 11 and innocent children because they inherit the 12 consequences when people like me are not 13 sufficiently vigorous in --

14 MR. CARNEY: Mr. Moore, your time is up.

15 MR. MOORE: My time isn't up. I haven't even 16 gone over the substantive issues.

17 MR. CARNEY: Christa Noel.

18 MS. NOEL: Good evening everyone. You know he 19 did speak a little bit of truth there. So anyway, 20 I'll start out by addressing some of the things that 21 you said. Stop the flow of drugs, don't arrest the 22 addicts. Stop the flow of guns, don't arrest the 23 oppressed. "Englewood if" is the community that 24 kept the guns and the violence out of Englewood. It

1 didn't have anything to do with you because if it
2 did, it would have happened last year with you. It 3 didn't. It went down when they went out on the 4 street, not you. You were here last year. It was 5 hot. They went on the street, it goes down. We 6 don't need you. We really don't. Corporate America 7 pays employees, Chicago pays you and your team and 8 all these police officers standing around us. Why 9 couldn't we bring signs in our house? This is our 10 house. You aren't even from Chicago, Garry. You 11 come to my city and you tell me what I can do in my 12 house, born and raised here, brother, born and 13 raised here. Don't come from somewhere else telling 14 me what I can do in my house in Chicago. Why can't 15 we bring signs in, do you know? Is that some rule?

16 MR. CARNEY: I didn't know there was a rule 17 that you couldn't bring signs in. I'm not aware of 18 the rule.

19 MS. NOEL: I wasn't either. Did you ya'll
20 know?

21 AUDIENCE: No.

22 MR. CARNEY: Continue.

23 MS. NOEL: Checking at the door doing what 24 they want to do at the door, right?

1 MR. CARNEY: It's a security issue. Keep 2 going.

3 MS. NOEL: All right. Do you still have the 4 murderer on 311 because it seems as if everybody -- 5 every police officer that murders somebody on the 6 street ends up answering 311 calls. Is Dante
7 Servant still on 311? You know, Scott?

8 MR. ANDO: I don't know where he's assigned.

9 UNKNOWN MAN: No one knows where he is 10 assigned?

11 MS. NOEL: Well McCarthy ain't talking. You 12 see how New Jersey treats Chicago, right? This how 13 you treat Chicago? You don't answer?

14 MR. CARNEY: Keep moving. You're doing a 15 wonderful job. We have a lot of speakers.

16 MS. NOEL: C'mon Demetrius, he could at least 17 tell us. We know where the boy lives, I think we 18 should know where he works. Do we have to go to his 19 house and ring his doorbell and ask him ourselves?
20 Because you know we're bad enough to do that at this 21 point.

22 The last thing and I'm out. The Board
23 creates the rules and regulations, right? I mean, 24 that's the rules and regulations, you guys can

1 change them. You all created them. This is true, 2 right?

3 MR. CARNEY: We don't create them.

4 MS. NOEL: Well, they were here but you're 5 responsible for them and you can change them, right?

6 MR. CARNEY: We can make recommendations, yes.

7 MS. NOEL: I thought you can change them.

8 MR. CARNEY: We can make recommendations.

9 MS. NOEL: Well, here's the problem I have.
10 You're responsible for the rules and regulations and 11 you don't have the power to fire somebody who 12 violates the rules and regulations unless one of 13 them tells you. That doesn't make any sense, right?
14 So we want to change the ordinance. I want you all 15 to have the power to fire when somebody breaks the 16 rules and regulations. I want to know if you will 17 support us writing that and changing the ordinance 18 so we ain't got to worry about him saying that 19 Rekia's shooting was justified, and him saying that 20 Dante Servant should have never been charged. And 21 we ain't going to worry about him taking -- I don't 22 know how long he's going to take, okay? I don't 23 know how long he's going to take.

24 For those of us in corporate America, you

1 know what they say when you break a policy and 2 procedure? You know how they write at the bottom if 3 you violate these policies and procedures, you can 4 be disciplined up to and including termination? If 5 you violate the rules and regulations of the Chicago
6 Police Department, our house, our community, you 7 kill one of us, you can be disciplined up to and 8 including termination. You all should be able to 9 make that call.

10 MR. CARNEY: Thank you.

11 MS. NOEL: Did you say you were going to 12 support the ordinance change?

13 MR. CARNEY: No, we did not. We heard you.

14 MS. NOEL: Okay.

15 MR. CARNEY: Aguscik Grazyna. Welcome.

16 MARZENA: My name is Marzena. I am speaking
17 on behalf of Auguscik Grazyna who is speaking here.
18 She's too emotional and too hurt to speak so she 19 asked me to speak on her behalf.

20 MR. CARNEY: That's fine.

21 MARZENA: Marek Bajon was her life partner for 22 20 years. On the 23rd of March, 2013 his car broke 23 down. He parked his car on the right shoulder of 24 the road, turned on blinking lights and was waiting

1 outside of his car for a friend who offered to help.
2 Marek was struck and killed on that day -- on that 3 night by 20-year-old Cheryl Perry on Mannheim Road.
4 At 1:30 she was driving recklessly in uninsured car 5 after participating in a drinking party. She 6 consumed three beers and a shot of cognac and that 7 is by her own admission.

8 There was a strong odor of alcohol. A 9 lot of people testified at the trial. There was 10 also an empty bottle of Smirnoff and a plastic cup
11 in the front of her car. She refused all testing 12 procedures when she was asked by police and also in 13 hospital where she was taken. Because of lack of 14 the proof of alcohol level, Ms. Perry was found not 15 guilty. She didn't get any tickets or license 16 suspension for several driving violations, passing
17 car on the right side, driving uninsured car, open 18 bottle of alcohol. She was driving fast but that 19 was not investigated.

20 Two police officers who accepted
21 Ms. Perry refused to test her -- the refusal to test 22 for alcohol, did not ticket her for any of the 23 violations. And I do have the names of the officers 24 and the investigator who did not do their duty to 1 ask her firmly to do that. According to the 2 Illinois driving law, a driver who is suspected of 3 DUI cannot refuse to do a chemical testing, or if 4 refusing, she or he admits to being guilty of DUI 5 and should get a ticket. She did not get any.

6 Due to the policeman and the 7 investigator's lack of professionalism and not 8 following to the letter of the law, Ms. Perry, who 9 was driving under the influence of alcohol in a car
10 without insurance with an open bottle of alcohol, 11 killed a man because of her driving and her decision 12 to drive after drinking alcohol. And she walked out 13 from the courtroom as an innocent person. Grazyna, 14 who is sitting here, her life is changed forever.
15 She is a performing artist and her quality of her 16 voice which comes from the instrument of her soul 17 and thereafter the quality of her work comes from 18 the inner power an feeling the righteousness and the 19 human goodness. The senseless death of her partner 20 forever changed her as an artist.

21 Her soul was crushed. Marek was her 22 partner, not only in her private life but also 23 assisted her in her career. The policeman and 24 investigator who neglected their basic duties should

1 bear the proper consequences, and we are begging you
2 and asking you for help. We are asking you to bring 3 at least small fraction of justice to what happened 4 to Marek and to her and to many, many people whose 5 lives he has touched. Thank you very much. And I
6 do have the names of the investigator, their badge
7 number, unit number. I have all the information.

8 MR. CARNEY: You can see the Superintendent's 9 counsel. Thank you. Grace Maddingly. Welcome.

10 MS. MADDINGLY: I'm here again to demand that 11 Officer Dante Servant who murdered Rekia Boyd on 12 March 21, 2012 be fired. Not only was Servant not 13 convicted of involuntary manslaughter, though he 14 ruthlessly shot Rekia in the back of head over a 15 noise complaint, he still retains his CPD badge.
16 Last month I enumerated just a few of the many rules 17 of police conduct that Officer Servant broke on 18 March 21, 2012; namely, Rule 8, Rule 9, Rule 11, 19 Rule 38, and many more. I assume that you know what 20 those are.

21 So today I return to demand Officer
22 Servant is taken off the streets where he can murder 23 more of us. All that you tell us is that the 24 process of reviewing Servant's case is still

1 underway and that we must respect this process. But 2 how can we be asked to respect a process that takes 3 three months to determine whether a murderer, who 4 also broke countless rules of conduct should keep 5 his job where he's in danger of murdering more 6 people? Only a corrupt or false process intending 7 to protect a crony would take so long to deliver its 8 verdict.

9 What's more puzzling is how we can be 10 asked to respect a process that let's cops get away
11 with murder period. Constantly I'm hearing of yet
12 another person who's been murdered by the Chicago
13 police and nothing is being done. People are dying 14 and you all are responsible. You cannot demand our 15 respect under these conditions. We are beyond 16 frustrated. We are seething. We are disgusted, and 17 we are ready. City of Chicago, fire Dante Servant.

18 MR. CARNEY: Final person to speak is Dale 19 Prince? (No answer). At this time I have called 20 upon all those to speak in advance. Everyone has 21 been recognized. And as many of you know, this is 22 my last Board meeting, and it has been an honor to 23 serve the citizens of Chicago. Thank you Mayor 24 Daley and Mayor Emmanuel for giving me this

1 opportunity. I also want to thank you the citizens
2 for coming and voicing and being heard. You have 3 made me always keep it real and I thank you for it.

4 And the next meeting will be Rory 5 Lightfoot will take over as president, and she will 6 be sitting in this spot. So with that, I would say 7 good night.

8 MR. FOREMAN: From the Board's perspective, we 9 want to add something, Demetrius. I think that I
10 speak for everyone when I say we have learned a lot 11 from you. And just a couple of statistics: Over 12 1300 cases, led searches for four superintendents, 13 200 meetings, and I think the word that Demetrius
14 speaks is true. He really encourages participation 15 from the citizens. And if you guys know, this is 16 kind of a thankless job and you have done a good job 17 and we thank you for your leadership.

18 UNKNOWN PERSON: Thank you for your years of 19 apathy.

20 MR. CARNEY: And with that the meeting is 21 adjourned.
