Subject: McDonald's Coupons for a Free Cookie

Hello,

I'm following up to instructions received in a recent conversation with Lauren Maniatis to report to the Ethics Department that I am accepting McDonald's coupons as a gift to the City of Chicago/Chicago Public Library Blackstone Branch. These coupons are to distribute to children who participate in the Blackstone Branch summer enrichment programming in order for them to receive for a free cookie at McDonald's (with no purchase necessary).

Attached is an image of what was delivered today to the Blackstone Branch. In total, 400 coupons were received. The board menu price for each cookie is $1.29, so the total face value for all of the free cookie coupons is $516.00. This gift to the City of Chicago/Chicago Public Library was coordinated by Iliana Ramirez, Marketing Manager of Julie Travers Marketing Services/McDonald's Franchise Owners, who can be reached at 312-929-5429.

Please let me know if any additional information is required. Thank you!

Best,
Robin
