

From: Lotika Pai <Lotika.Pai@cityofchicago.org>
Sent: Monday, April 15, 2024 11:40 AM
Subject: Post-event disclosure 4/11/2024: Reasonable Hosting Reporting

Lauren,

I am writing to notify you that I attended the following events on 4/1/24:

Event 1:

Launch of Co-LLAB, South Side Chicago incubator for young creatives of color developing businesses in the arts, entertainment, & retail

Event 2:

Native Foods - Official ribbon cutting at 2pm followed by a tour.

My attendance is in connection with my official City duties.

Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Thanks,

Lotika

Lotika Pai (she/her)

Chief Small Business Officer, Small Business Advocacy

From: Lotika Pai

Sent: Wednesday, April 10, 2024 4:27 PM

Subject: Pre-event disclosure 4/11/2024: Reasonable Hosting Reporting

Lauren,

I will be attending 2 events tomorrow on behalf of Deputy Mayor Kenya Merritt. My attendance is in connection with my official City duties.

Event 1:

Launch of Co-LLAB, South Side Chicago incubator for young creatives of color developing businesses in the arts, entertainment, & retail

Ribbon-cutting ceremony will take place at 10:30 am, followed by a tour, networking etc. ending at 1pm on Thursday, April 11

Address of event: Address: 6033 S Wentworth Ave, Chicago, IL, 60621 (Englewood)

Event 2:

Native Foods in Chicago and recently became Employee Owned and Black Owned. Official ribbon cutting at 2pm followed by a tour.

Address of event: 218 S. Clark St, Chicago, IL 60604

Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Thanks,

Lotika

Lotika Pai (she/her)

Chief Small Business Officer, Small Business Advocacy

