Subject: Re: Gift

Hello Comptroller Rehwinkel and Mr Superfine: Today I received a package delivered to our office, addressed to me, from from Civiltech Engineering Inc. The box contains about a dozen individually wrapped baked goods from fairytale brownies. Based on their website, I estimate the value of this product at $38. I am accepting the package on behalf of the City and placing the items in our reception area for anyone to enjoy one.

The screenshot shows the website for Fairytale Brownies. The header includes the company logo, a search bar, a phone number (800.324.7982), and a sign-in button. Below the header is a navigation menu with categories: Best-Sellers, Occasions, Gift Types, By Price, and Corporate Gifts. A purple banner reads "Final Chance for Thanksgiving Arrival!". The main content area displays eight different gift boxes, each with a price, quantity, and star rating. The products are:
