MAYOR BRANDON JOHNSON ANNOUNCES CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTEES
HON. BERNETTA BUSH AND SARAH JIN TO THE BOARD OF ETHICS

CHICAGO – Mayor Brandon Johnson today announced the confirmations of the Honorable Bernetta Bush and Sarah Jin to the City of Chicago Board of Ethics by a unanimous vote by the City Council. Both appointees bring a combined 40 years of legal experience to the board and are prepared to uphold the integrity of City government operations.

“As a longtime advocate for transparent and ethical government, I am excited to welcome Judge Bernetta Bush and Sarah Jin to City Hall,” said Mayor Brandon Johnson. “I am confident that with their extensive experience, together we will effectively carry out the responsibilities of the Board of Ethics and work to ensure transparency and accountability within our administration.”

Judge Bush is a well-accomplished judicial officer and legal practitioner with over 30 years of experience in the legal profession. She has served on the Circuit Court of Cook County in the Municipal, County, and Chancery Divisions and is a longtime Legal Counsel for the Illinois State Board of Education. Her previous ethics experience includes Ethics Officer for the City Colleges of Chicago and Chicago State University. Judge Bush earned bachelor's and master's degrees at Northeastern Illinois University and completed her Juris Doctorate at DePaul University College of Law in 1977.

Jin is an experienced attorney and litigator with over a decade of experience defending diverse cases, individuals, and businesses. She is the current Litigation Partner at Barnes & Thornburg, LLP in Chicago and holds membership in the Chicago, Cook County, Illinois State, and National Bar Associations. Jin's educational background includes a Bachelor's in English at the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign and a J.D. at the Loyola University Chicago School of Law.
