STATEMENT FROM MAYOR BRANDON JOHNSON FOLLOWING LAWSUIT FILED TODAY IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT

CHICAGO – The City of Chicago and Mayor Johnson received notice of the lawsuit filed today in Federal District Court. The complaint is under review by the Law Department. Following a full review, we will respond in due course. Chicago is and will remain a welcoming city, with welcoming people who work beside their neighbors to build strong communities where you can still raise a family.

The safety and security of Chicago residents remains the priority for the Johnson Administration. Chicago will continue to protect the working people of our city and defend against attacks on our longstanding values. Chicago will stay focused on our priorities. We will lead with continued investments in mental health, youth employment and affordable homes.
